

Law Firms in Abbotsford

Law Firms in Abbotsford - To protect our clients assets is the core of our Tax Team, by performing structuring of business transactions, domestic and international tax planning, and litigating tax disagreements. We have really renowned lawyers recognized both domestically and internationally for their innovations in domestic and international tax planning. We are known for the creative use of trusts, corporations, partnerships, joint ventures and other vehicles. Our Tax Group is frequently requested by different law firms as well as accounting offices seeking our specialized skill for their clients.

We can help our clients regarding the advantages of all types' transactions and our lawyers work with our firm's Corporate Finance and Corporate/Commercial Teams. This enables us to produce the most favorable tax consequences possible during business arrangements, transactions and strategies.

We use the many taxation agencies that we have built superb relations to be able to enable us to successfully represent clients in areas of needing advance tax ruling, promoting legislative change, and negotiating and disputing the settlement of tax reassessments. In circumstances where tax disputes cannot be settled, our Tax Group litigators act on behalf of clients before all levels of the courts.