

Best Divorce Lawyer in Abbotsford

Best Divorce Lawyer in Abbotsford - There are some things that you must take into account when planning your estate beyond only your last will and testament. Things to take into account include choosing the beneficiaries of your life insurance benefits, deferring and reducing taxes, pension plans, homes, practices and businesses. Our company is skilled in different issues about wills and estates and is capable of providing valuable and efficient estate planning recommendation.

Included in the more comprehensive estate plans are the preparations for future illness as this can be a somewhat complex matter. Our veteran lawyers provides suggestion to our clients in the preparation of their Enduring Power of Attorney, Personal Directive, and Dependent Adult Applications.

Amongst the aspects in which we are skilled consist of charitable giving as well as the succession of family businesses. Some of our lawyers regularly attend lectures and publish articles related to estate planning.

Dependent Relief Act Application, Challenging Wills, Interstate Succession Act Issues, matrimonial property issues, adult interdependent relationships and same sex relationships are all probate and estate litigation issues in which we specialize.