

Lawyers in Abbotsford

Lawyers in Abbotsford - Tax law is involved in an amazingly huge amount of everyday activities and are in almost each day-to-day deal involving cash. Often, there is just cause to break a deal on the way the tax laws are implicated in a partnership or merger. Utilizing their creativity and skill, our lawyers can normally turn what was a deal breaker into a deal maker. We ensure that up-to-date tax suggestion is provided in both corporate and commercial transactions by communicating together with our colleagues in several practices of law. We have a large range of clients, from high net worth people to all levels of worldwide corporations and governments.

Our tax litigators can handle a variety of tax disputes and do so efficiently and cost-effectively. We make certain our lawyers are well rounded by ensuring their backgrounds are comprised of both tax and litigation. Our chartered accountants and lawyers have worked for the provincial tax departments along with the federal Department of Justice. We would rather attain ideal resolutions quickly, but whenever considered necessary our lawyers are fully capable of representing our clients in court.