

Sports Law Abbotsford

Sports Law Abbotsford - Our company helps several individual athletes, both professional and amateur, in addition to various sports groups with their problems regarding sports law. Our clients perform in many sports comprising baseball, hockey, football, and track and field to name a few.

Our firm has vast knowledge in handling issues that take place within Minor Hockey. Our lawyers are experienced and well seasoned in the several circumstances which could take place like for instance administrative hearings, negotiations, and in trial. usually, our sports law practitioners are requested to appear on radio, television, and other media because of their comprehensive depth of knowledge.