

Abbotsford Real Estate Lawyers

Abbotsford Real Estate Lawyers - Our firm specializes in Real Estate Law and is recognized leader within the development, sale and purchase of real property, real estate financing and leasing transactions. We can assist clients in the construction, management and development of residential and commercial condominiums, office buildings, residential rental projects, retirement homes, hotels and shopping centers. Our clients comprise developers of residential, commercial, institutional, and industrial real estate, domestic and international real property investors as well as providers of financing, property management and construction services.

We have represented both public entities and private developers in transactions comprising public-private partnerships (P3) for infrastructure since we are knowledgeable and skilled concerning the policy, political and institutional matters included in structuring and implementing transactions.

We help clients with procurement, infrastructure and financing planning. Our multi-disciplinary method enables our real estate lawyers to draw on the resources of other experts in our company. We provide our clients various recommendation required to be successful in real estate joint ventures and financings, syndications, reorganizations, financial workouts and environmental assessments.
