

Estate Lawyers Abbotsford

Estate Lawyers Abbotsford - Estate litigation normally happens immediately after someone you love becomes incapacitated or passes away. There are many emotions, and both interpersonal and family conflicts that likewise occur making the responsibility of making important decisions almost unbearable. Our company has a variety of services which could ensure that all of the estate matters are handled efficiently and quickly.

We could provide our assistance to the many beneficiaries, executors and personal representatives regarding challenges to power of attorney, wills and trusts. These challenges could also include guardianship and trusteeship quarrels, undue influence and will interpretation, dependent adult claims, and capacity. Also, trustees, trusts and charitable institutions can depend on our company for useful recommendations.

In the case when a dependent adult or the estate are involved, stressful and difficult situations can occur. We will guarantee that all our clients are given effective and straightforward advice. Our resolutions are accomplished by way of litigation, mediation or arbitration.