

Abbotsford Family Lawyer

Abbotsford Family Lawyer - When your marriage or common-law relationship dissolves, lots of issues may happen. It is vital that you retain sound legal counsel and that you fully understand the effects that your potential choices can have on your future. Our firm provides expert recommendation and counsel on these problems as access, custody, property and pension division, business property and debt division. Our office is committed to providing you with the necessary legal services you need to navigate throughout the family law process efficiently and fast.

Which parent will your kid live? When will the child or kids see the parent without custodial rights? Who is accountable for financially support? Who will keep the matrimonial house? Who will be accountable for paying any debts incurred during the marriage? Moreover, if you have a family business, how would the business assets be divided?

Here at our firm, we can assist you in the preparation of the Separation Agreement, that offers clear and comprehensive answers to such questions. To allow you to focus on your new life, a formal agreement is suggested. This Separation Agreement, once finalized, is a binding agreement on both parties.

This agreement could be incorporated into the final Divorce Order. An uncontested divorce occurs if you and your spouse agree to divorce and have agreement concerning all major problems. An uncontested divorce could proceed quickly through a three-part application process. Our duty is to be able to assist you in the preparation of all required papers and to file them quickly so that you can move on with your life.

If you and your spouse cannot agree on matters, we call this a contested divorce. Those matters can be handled through informal negotiations between parties, settlement conferences, court proceedings and/or trials. Our lawyers can help you throughout all phases of the court process. Our objective is to protect your rights and advocate for the best interests of you and your family.

The break up of a common-law relationship requires a different procedure regarding support, custody, pension division and property division problems. Our company can assist you with all matters connected to the termination of a common-law relationship.
