

Abbotsford Personal Injury

Abbotsford Personal Injury - Personal injuries can cause a time which might be overwhelming and confusing. Your personal life might get overturned emotionally, financially and physically. We have trusted and experienced advisors you can always rely on. Our personal injury lawyer and senior law clerk have the specialized legal skill to be able to provide you with professional representation and recommendation. We can help you to know the legislation as it applies to your particular case, and we will take the time to talk about all of your options. We will be available from start to finish of the personal injury legal process.

Your first consultation with an experienced personal injury lawyer will be provided free of charge. If we accept your case on a "contingency fee" basis, you might not have to pay an initial retainer fee. In such situations, you will pay nothing in legal fees if we can not obtain compensation for you. We will receive a percentage of the settlement if we are successful in getting compensation. We would make sure that you know all the particulars of the retainer agreement before you sign.

You have to call us as soon as possible following your injury so as to prevent your rights from expiring. The particular time periods within which you need to bring your claim could differ from a few days to two years.

Our vast knowledge extends into the following fields of personal injury: motor vehicle accidents; dog bites and animal attacks; long-term disability claims, pension plan appeals and slip and fall injuries.

Most personal injury cases are successfully settled without going to trial. Our aim is to be able to provide effective negotiation and avoid expensive court procedures. Nevertheless, we have skilled litigators who would represent you before the court if it becomes needed.
