

Abbotsford Bankruptcy Trustee

Abbotsford Bankruptcy Trustee - Our experienced team are experienced and knowledgeable in all the aspects of insolvency law including matters like for example foreclosures, receiverships, and bankruptcies.

When dealing with bankruptcy, our company provides recommendation to both corporations and individuals. Our aim is to ensure that our client's rights are respected all over the whole procedure. We also have several litigators who are significantly experienced in representing both creditors and debtors in court.

We specialize in insolvency law and particularly the sector of receivership. Our firm has a base of clients ranging from lenders to court-appointed and privately appointed receivers. Numerous cases comprises us providing counsel concerning the determination of priority problems between rivaling creditors.

Our firm has represented lots of major institutional clients, through the years, in foreclosures on an assortment of both commercial and residential properties. We likewise have lots of knowledge defending client's that have been threatened with foreclosure. Our professionals are well-seasoned and knowledgeable in all aspects of insolvency law.