

Abbotsford Business Law

Abbotsford Business Law - Our Business Law team assists companies of all sizes and types in achieving their objectives. We believe in and provide value-based and client-centred legal assistance. With our trademark combination of innovative and conventional methods to business law, we serve many of this nation's most successful and well-known commercial enterprises, and assist with development ranging in size from millions to hundreds of millions of dollars.

Our company works as an integrated team with other specialists, lawyers and engineers across North America and all over the world. Our company and legal advice has helped hundreds of major resource-based developments achieve their objectives, from mining projects to oil and gas developments, from agribusiness to pulp and paper. We design joint ventures and creative partnerships amongst businesses, co-operatives, governments, financial institutions, merchant bankers and venture capitalists.

We give sound business advice to clients on divestitures, mergers and acquisitions all through the whole transaction cycle, including structuring, legal due diligence, and negotiating letters of intent, offers to purchase and agreements of purchase and sale.

To be able to help serve our clients in the areas of tax planning and the governance and structuring of various entities, our company has a strong practice in commercial law. We work on numerous concerns including negotiated project financing, engineering and construction agreements, and global commodity marketing agreements for business enterprises.

We assist grassroots entrepreneurship through our services to medium sized and small businesses. We help in the development of effective management and business structures. We could help entrepreneurs' access capital and establish positive relationships along with customers and suppliers. Our lawyers have extensive knowledge with cross-border transactions and can help small businesses to become successful exporters.
