Trademark Lawyers Abbotsford - Our lawyers are knowledgeable within Intellectual Property Law and could provide recommendation and help with intellectual property protection and enforcement with an objective of assisting our clients to maximize the value of their intellectual property (IP). As amongst the leading intellectual property practices in this nation, our clients come to us for our sensible suggestion and skill in the following IP fields: licensing and IP transactions, copyright; patents and industrial designs; internet domain names and trademarks; trade secrets; technology and IP litigations; IP due diligence in corporate transactions; IP portfolio management; freedom to operate opinions (infringement, validity, patentability); licensing, integration and procurement of software applications; and outsourcing of information systems management services.

Our office has a large amount of experience in securing and protecting our clientele's' valuable IP assets. We have more than twenty IP practitioners: lawyers, trade-mark and patent agents, law clerks and scientific consultants; who are well versed within the disciplines of biology, mathematics, chemistry, engineering and physics. Many of our experts have attained strong technical expertise and advanced science degrees, which means they understand our client's IP protection requirements.

Amongst the world's recognized brands are among our clientele. We advise companies and organizations of all sizes about intellectual property licensing, protection and portfolio management. We also represent entrepreneurs and start-ups.

We understand the value of our clients' brands, creative work and invention. Our litigators represent clients in copyright, patent and trade-mark matters before the Federal Court. We likewise appear in arbitrations, litigation, and mediations about infringement of rights, passing off, misuse of confidential information, and contract disputes before Courts of Appeal. Our lawyers even appear before arbitration panels in respect of domain name dispute resolution procedures and before the Trade-marks Opposition Board in respect of opposition and summary expungement proceedings. Our company acted as counsel in several of the biggest information systems management outsourcing transactions in this nation.

Our firm's IP Team, is able to gain assistance from the lawyers in other fields of our multidisciplinary law company. We have IP lawyers working with lawyers in commercial, corporate, securities and competition practice fields. Together our group of professionals helps clients with their intellectual property problems, such as the protection of intangible assets through registering copyrights, patents and trade-marks; drafting of confidentiality and non-competition agreements; litigation of intellectual property problems; and development of strategies for IP protection. Our Business Law Group helps the IP Team in the representation of both buyers and sellers in acquisitions, divestitures and mergers of IP companies.

Our lawyers can help clients in advertising and marketing related legal problems. We also advise clients on the issues of labeling, advertising and packaging. We also assist with privacy related issues, regulatory requirements and franchise and distribution agreements.
