

Abbotsford Law Firms

Abbotsford Law Firms - Our team of administrative lawyer's works on a variety of issues connected to tribunals and regulatory agencies for our clients who include: businesses, not-for-profit organizations, governments and individuals. Our lawyers act for clients before commissions and tribunals regarding issues related to information and privacy, gaming and liquor, water quality safety, insurance and human rights.

Our lawyers have knowledge dealing with boards of inquiry and various administrative tribunals established for workplace health and safety and environmental law. We offer initial due diligence and structure compliance-based transaction strategies. We have several years of knowledge acting for clients before administrative law decision-makers. Our lawyers even bring to the table valuable adjudicative skill through helping as mediators and arbitrators.