

Abbotsford Business Law Firm

Abbotsford Business Law Firm - Our company's Business Law team understands the business objectives of our clients and helps in attaining those objectives with timely, efficient and customized legal counsel. Our clients include public and private businesses, partnerships and their executives and boards of directors. We act as business advisors, making use of our lawyers' multidisciplinary strengths in the full range of business law fields, such as mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, tax planning and environmental compliance. We have skill in businesses ranging from sports and entertainment to communications and information technology.

We deal with clients with many different commercial agreements, like for example the preparation of confidentiality agreements, customer service agreements, license agreements, employment agreements, supply contract agreements, project agreements, non-competition agreements, consulting agreements and management agreements.

We assist with the sale or purchase of assets or shares of corporations. This includes the coordination of auctions, related due diligence, required financing and regulatory approval under the Competition Act and other statutes. Our team has facilitated business combinations intended to be able to apply difficult corporate reorganizations in a tax effective method, like "butterfly" transactions, plans of arrangement and amalgamations.
