

Car Accident Lawyers Abbotsford

Car Accident Lawyers Abbotsford - In today's litigious environment, class actions present significant difficulties to businesses, governments as well as other organizations. Our Class Action Group provides the strategic and technical knowledge considered necessary for the successful defense of class proceedings. We are pioneers in this evolving and complex area of the law. Our ability to manage difficult, multi-party litigation is proven by our record in the field of class actions.

We have advised and acted in lots of high profile class procedures. Our lawyers are often called upon to coordinate, participate in and lead the defense of multi-jurisdictional class procedures. Our skill encompasses mass torts like products liability cases, pension's claims, other investor's and securities claims, biotechnology and commercial claims.

Our class action lawyers advise our numerous clients in certain issues that have not yet matured into issued claims. Our litigators are here to help you in responding to class proceedings once commenced.

We are considered to be leading educators on the subject of class actions. Our members have authored many articles and presented at national and international conferences.