

Abbotsford Accident Lawyer

Abbotsford Accident Lawyer - Our Intellectual Property (IP) Group understands the value and importance of your intellectual property. In order to assist you license and protect your intellectual property, we offer various legal assistance related to trademarks, trade secrets, industrial designs and copyright. Our clients are those included within the licensing, use, creation, acquisition and protection of intellectual property. Our IP lawyers have various years of experience securing patent, trademark, industrial design and copyright registrations nationally and globally. We are experienced at enforcing your intellectual property rights.

Our Patent services include: preparation, filing and prosecution of patent applications; prior art searching; licensing and assignments; enforcement.

We also provide advice and services for Trademarks including: opinions and searching relating to registration of word, design, certification or public authority marks and distinguishing guises; preparation and filing of applications for registration; licensing, assignment and franchising agreements; opposition proceedings before the Trade-mark Opposition Board; infringement and passing-off opinions; renewals and expungement (removal) applications; trademark defense and enforcement.

For Copyrights, we provide searching; licensing of literary (including software), musical and dramatic works; prosecution, preparation and filing of applications for registration; infringement opinions; assignment and copyright protected works and sale of copyright; copyright enforcement and defense.

We can assist your company with the protection of Trade Secrets so as to keep your competitive advantage. We can craft programs and agreements in order to protect confidential data.

For Industrial Designs we provide searching and availability opinions; licensing and assignment; filing, prosecution and preparation of applications for registration.

We have numerous clients from a variety of trades like for example agriculture, entertainment, hotels, manufacturing, travel and technology.