

Business Lawyer Abbotsford

Business Lawyer Abbotsford - We offer a variety of services to numerous financing and leasing companies, financial institutions, and other non-bank lenders including structuring and documenting an assortment of loan transactions. These transactions consist of term loans, lines of credit, revolving credit facilities, asset-based loans, lease financings, subordinated financings, motion picture financings, and real estate development financings.

Our business clients even depend on us to assist them in arranging, negotiating, and obtaining credit facilities.

Our lawyers are really familiar with public sector financing and with assistance programs and structures. They have vast skill with industrial revenue bond issuances, industrial development transactions, local and state development agency programs and financings.

What's more, our lawyers assist lenders and borrowers with work-outs and loan restructurings.
