

Criminal Law Firms Abbotsford

Criminal Law Firms Abbotsford - It is vital to our clients that their intellectual property, and their rights behind it, remain enforced and protected at all times. Our office ensures that the misappropriation or misuse of intellectual property that is owned by our clients is handled efficiently and quickly. We provide guidance in situations handling the leak of confidential information, trade secrets, registered designs, copyright, trademarks and patents. As well, we even deal with the anti-piracy issues, personality rights, defamation and commercial disputes utilizing litigation.

In matters regarding patents, our lawyers are specifically well-versed within the telecommunication, mechanical and pharmaceutical sectors. Whichever copyright violations arising from the web, like disputes concerning software, music, television and artwork rights, are handled quickly so as to prevent more exploitation. Trademark and competition matters are generally dealt with making use of litigation.

Utilizing our skills of our well-seasoned litigation lawyers together with our firm's expertise concerning intellectual property makes for a formidable combination. Our clients can rely on us to act for them at all levels of the Canadian courts in addition to international tribunals.

Our firm has various highly educated solicitors, and patent and trademark agents, who work directly with our property litigators. As a firm, we have commercial skill in technology transactions. This ensures we have an additional set of skills that is useful should a case get settled before going to trial. The help which we offer our clients is creative, time-efficient, and above all, effective.

In order to achieve and meet all of our client's objectives and goals, litigation are often not the only way utilized. We normally choose other and efficient and cost effective methods in order to meet the requirements of the client. The main objective is to be able to achieve our clients' goals as painlessly and quickly as possible.