

Best Personal Injury Lawyer Abbotsford

Best Personal Injury Lawyer Abbotsford - Our firm's Privacy Group is recognized for its combination of innovation and practicality. Our privacy lawyers are recognized globally amongst international policy makers, companies and regulators for providing leadership about complex privacy issues.

We help our clients to know how privacy laws effect cross-border commerce, and we offer recommendation on data and privacy protection matters. Members of our Privacy Team have close working relationships together with privacy commissioners in order to gain in-depth knowledge concerning the impact of privacy laws on business.

The most important elements of privacy compliance programs are training, brand integrity and streamlined business processes. Private sector groups, quasi-public and public bodies, and domestic and foreign companies, including retailers, marketing agencies, financial institutions, the entertainment industry and wireless service providers, are amongst our clients. We even offer assistance to the health care trade, such as hospitals and pharmaceutical companies, concerning individual matters connected to personal health information privacy.
