

Patent Agent Abbotsford

Patent Agent Abbotsford - Our Intellectual Property lawyers have many years of knowledge helping clients who are developing new services, products, brands, and content. We advise and act for clients in the field of technology and intellectual property law, with a focus on trademarks and unfair competition. We likewise handle copyrights, internet law, sports, art and entertainment law, and related litigation. We understand the investment you have in your intellectual property, and we give the skill needed to realize maximum returns on your investment.

Trademarks are of significant value, especially in protecting Internet domain names. Trademarks can be an efficient method of dealing with "cyber squatters" who attempt to steal your Internet customers. Our attorneys help entrepreneurs in choosing business marks and names which can be successfully registered and which will not infringe the rights of others. We also help established businesses protect their present brands.

Our lawyers assist clients with the copyright registration process. We deal with situations of plagiarism, unlawful copying, and other unfair uses of client's protected expression. Our office knows that copyrights are important to clients' success in the publishing, art, music and recording industries, and including software, manuals, business plans, photographs, catalogs, advertising copy, designs, and jingles.

Our litigators have an established record of success litigating unfair competition, domain name, trademark, and copyright infringement disputes, when necessary.

Our team assists with agreements for licensing intellectual property and collaborations for creation and use of intellectual property. Our services consist of assistance in structuring and negotiating assignments, licenses, and other transactions in which intellectual property can be commercially utilized and exploited.
